MONEY AND JEWELS STOLEN

The theft of a purse containing $20 in money, a check for $10, a gold watch and several articles of jewelry, belonging to Mrs. G. A. Baxter, of Knoxville, Tenn., was reported to the Paris police.

Mrs. Baxter, who, with her husband, is stopping at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. N. Fithian, laid her purse on the writing desk in the postoffice lobby while directing an envelope. She noticed a white man in his shirt sleeves standing near at the time. When she finished her work and looked up both man and purse had disappeared. A description of the man was furnished the police, who are endeavoring to locate him.

POLA NEGRI IN "INTRIGUE," THURSDAY

The latest and most daring creations of Parisian designers are worn by Pola Negri, the celebrated continental actress in "Intrigue," her newest screen drama which comes to The Alamo and Grand, Thursday afternoon and night.

"Intrigue" is a story of modern Paris, and was filmed in Paris, thus providing Pola Negri with an opportunity to shop for the latest gowns in Paris shops during the filming of the scenes.

Many of the roles that she has portrayed were character parts in which she was compelled to wear the costumes of the period, but "Intrigue" is a 1921 story, laid in the fashion capital of the world, and the beautiful Pola Negri revels in the finest of finery.

IN AUTO COLLISION

While Mrs. Chas. V. Higgins, of near Paris, accompanied by a little child of one of the farm tenants was driving in a buggy near the corner of Tenth and Pleasant streets, they were run into by an automobile said to have been driven by a Mr. Faulkner, of Winchester.

Mrs. Higgins was thrown from the buggy, striking on her head and shoulders, suffering a fracture of the arm near the shoulder, and receiving a number of severe cuts and bruises about the head and body. The child was uninjured.

The occupants of the car returned to the scene of the collision and assisted by bystanders, placed Mrs. Higgins in their car and rushed her to the Massie Memorial Hospital, where her injuries were given medical attention. She was reported last night as being considerably improved and resting easy.

AUGUST COURT DAY

A very small crowd greeted August Court Day yesterday, and the volume of business transacted in livestock was rather small. There was a dearth of horses and other stock on the market, those that were here changing hands at fair prices. At the M. J. Murphy stock yards Auctioneer George D. Speakes sold a consignment of sheep at good prices. The horse traders did some business. Merchants report only a fair business, with collections about an average for August. Farmers were too busy with their crops to visit the city. The usual "sideshows" were in evidence.

CARS IN COLLISION

A large touring car, bearing a Indiana license tag, carrying a man and woman and several children, whose names were not secured, collided with a Bourbon county car on the Lexington road, five miles from Paris, Saturday, the touring car being badly damaged. The Indiana party were touring the Bluegrass region. None of the occupants were injured. All refused to give names. A number of glass jars, containing blackberry jam, part of the commissary department of the touring car, were broken, and their contents scattered over the cars and the roadbed. The damaged car was brought to Paris, where, after repairs had been made the party continued their interrupted journey.
